Cuddling a koala has long been a typical Australian tourist activity, but it may soon be a thing of the past. Though it sounds a little bit disappointing, that's exactly 26 at the Lone Pine Koala Sanctuary in Brisbane, Australia. This famous sanctuary, the world's first and largest koala shelter, has decided to stop people 27 holding koalas. The decision has sparked a debate. On the one hand, animal rights groups are 28 a complete restriction on koala cuddling in all Australian zoos. They argue that being held by humans is stressful for koalas, which 29 them to sleep less and behave unnaturally. 30, some argue that koala cuddling plays a vital role in raising awareness about these endangered animals. They believe it helps people learn about koalas and motivates them to protect these cute furry animals. To sum up, it doesn't seem to be an easy question to answer regarding holding koalas or not.

The following is Frank’s school field trip notice.

FIELD TRIP NOTICE

Dear parents and families,

Our class is heading on a field trip to the Fonghuanggu Bird and Ecology Park on Wednesday, December 25, 2024. Unfortunately, we will not be able to take any parents that day. But don’t worry. We will have plenty of school staff with us as chaperones.

We’ll be leaving the school at 8:30 am and returning at 4:00 pm. Please make sure your child dresses comfortably and appropriately for the weather that day. Also, please make sure your child arrives at school on time. Late students will be left behind as we are on a prompt schedule.

● Please fill out the permission slip at the bottom of this notice and return it by Friday, November 29. Without this permission, your child will not be allowed to attend the field trip.

● Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions!

Thank you,
Ms. Smith
Email: maysmith@gmail.com

Field Trip Permission Slip

- Please check (✓) one:

- ☒ My child Frank Chen has my permission to attend this field trip.
☐ I do not give permission for my child to attend this field trip. I would like my child to stay home.

- If you agree, check (✓) if your child needs a packed lunch.

- ☒ My child will need a packed lunch.
☐ My child will bring his or her own lunch.

When planning a vacation, most people center on sightseeing and visiting famous landmarks. But have you ever considered choosing a destination based on how it smells? This unique concept is called "sightsmelling." A company in the UK created a list of the best-smelling cities in Europe, using a method called the Environmental Performance Index (EPI) score. This score takes into account factors such as air and water cleanliness, as well as the number of bakeries, perfume shops, and flower shops per 10 square kilometers.

According to the report, Athens, the capital of Greece, takes the top spot as the best-smelling city. With over 30 bakeries and flower shops in every 10 square kilometers, Athens offers a delightful aroma. The city also boasts street markets with fresh food, adding to its pleasant scent. However, it's important to note that Athens doesn't always smell good, especially during garbage worker strikes.

Paris, famous for its delicious baguettes, comes in second on the list, followed by Zurich, Dublin, and Luxembourg City. Surprisingly, Valletta, the small but bustling capital of Malta, ranks ninth on the list. Despite its size, Valletta impressively has 196 bakeries per 10 square kilometers.

If you're looking for a unique way to choose your next travel destination, why not consider the smells of these European cities? You can immerse yourself in the scents of these cities in addition to exploring the sights. Whether it's the aroma of freshly baked bread in Paris or the fragrant flowers in Athens, each city offers its own sweet-smelling experience. So, let your nose guide you on your next adventure!

38. What is the passage mainly about?
 (A) Traditional sightseeing is outdated and "sightsmelling" is the new trend.
 (B) Air quality is the most important factor considered when a city's smell is ranked.
 (C) A company developed a system to identify the most visually appealing cities in Europe.
 (D) Choosing a vacation destination based on its pleasant smells is a unique travel concept.

39. Which of the following is closest in meaning to the underlined word “aroma” in the passage?
(A) attitude (B) energy (C) feeling (D) smell
40. Which of the following factors does the Environmental Performance Index (EPI) score NOT take into account?
(A) The historical significance of landmarks. (B) The number of bakeries per area.
(C) The cleanliness of air and water. (D) The number of perfume shops per area.
41. Based on the passage, why does Athens sometimes smell bad?
(A) Water pollution from the river nearby.
(B) Its great number of bakeries and flower shops.
(C) The influence of garbage worker strikes.
(D) The lack of street markets with fresh food.
42. Based on the passage, why might Valletta, Malta, be surprisingly high on the list?
(A) It has a large population and a noisy atmosphere.
(B) It has a high concentration of bakeries despite its small size.
(C) It boasts a surprisingly high number of flower shops.
(D) The fresh sea air contributes significantly to its pleasant smell.
